One of the main reasons given for this hientiful supply is the open winter. In previous years the brooks troze almost solld, and when the ice broke up in the Spring, they overflowed their banks. When the waters finally redeals many of the trout were left high and dry, and a great portion were tartied down to the river. ## THE THEATRES

POLI'S

"The Pianophiends" is scoring a bigger hit than any other headline act this season at Poli's this week. Not excepting "The Love Waltz" or "The Country Club" two of Jesse L. Lasky's most protentious and extravagant productions no act this season has won such instantaneous and universal popularity with vaudeville patrons. "The Pianophiends" is a novel musical act including as a feature duets on five planes played by nine planists simultoneously. Several vocal song hits and chorus numbers, pretty girls, an elaborate stage setting and costuming lends unusual attractiveness to this magnificent production. magnificent production.

A clever bill all the way through this week embraces as some of its best features: The Longacre Quartet, a pleasing singing four; The Jossettis European Risley and Lilliputian troupe in startling feats; Edwina Barry & Co., in a laughable domestic farce, called "The Homebreaker"; Wood Bros., Irish athletes and boomerang throwers; Rastus Brown, a snappy colored dancer; Pealson, Goldie & Lea, in singing character work; and laughable views on the Electrograph. views on the Electrograph.

Manager Poli offers next week as his chief attraction, the brilliant comedy sketch from the pen of George V. Hosketch from the pen of George V. Hobart, entitled, "Cherie" presented by Clayton White and Marie Stuart. This act is said to be without precedent in vaudeville. Bright with humor and novel situation. "Cherie" will be found to be a surprising hit in Bridgeport. Gaanda-Humanus, the enigma, will be the added feature. This act introduces a wonderful mechanical figure that writes rides a bicycle and does most everything but talk. It is one of the most gigantic illusions ever offered on any stage and has been directly imported from Europe. The supporting bill next week will be one of the most attractive of the season. attractive of the season

SMITH'S

There can be no question that the pictures shown at Smith's are the dargest, the clearest, and the best dis-played anywhere in this city. Under prevailing conditions, the picture is 28 feet wide, and 24 foot high. The machine runs absolutely without noise, and there is not the slightest jar or flicker. Although the pictures shown at Smith's have always been the best shown in Bridgeport, without excep-tion, at present they are even better than before, and the patrons yesterday, who are in the habit of visiting the who are in the habit of visiting the "store shows." spoke highly in appreciation of those they witnessed at Smith's. There will also be another complete change of program for tomorrow afternoon and evening. The afternoon hours are from 1:30 to 5, and the evening from 7 to 10:30. You have done in at any time, stay as long can drop in at any time, stay as long as you please, and enjoy yourself as you have not done for many a day.

"The survival of the fittest" is amply illustrated in the long life of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," which has been be fore the public for more years than most of this paper's readers care to remember. This truly American stage classic's present day popularity has long furnished food for thought among long furnished food for thought among producing managers, playwrights and and the public generally. That it will never die, but live on forever, seems an assured fact in so far as the Stetson company is concerned. This famous dramatic organization is due here Good Friday and Saturday, with daily matiness at popular prices. matinees at popular prices.

Max Rogers, the "little fellow" of the Rogers Brothers, supported by Joe Kane, late star of "The Belle of New York" and other New York Casino successes, who plays the opposite role, and the original New York company, in his latest musical play, "In Panama," will be the attraction Easter Monday evening, the sale of seats opening to-morrow morning.

The character which Miss Ethel Barrymore plays in "Lady Frederick," the brilliant comedy by W. Somerset Maughath in which Charles Frohman presents her next Tuesday evening, is quiet different from the others in which she has distinguished herself. She is seen as the widow of an Irish baronet and while Lady Frederick is no longer precisely young, she has a host of devoted admirers. Incidentally she is deeply in debt. During her career as a star Miss Barrymore never had a more effective role. supporting company includes Bruce McRae, Norman Tharp, Charles Ham-mond, Arthur Elliott, Orlando Daly, Jessie Millward, Vira Stowe and Anita Rothe.

"A Knight for a Day." comes Wed-nesday, with a big special matinee.

two of Bridgeport's best black face artists, will appear in the annual minstrel and dance of the St. Patricks, to be held at Eagles' hall on Easter Monday evening. Mr. Mean will render that touching ballad "Honey Lou" in his very best form, Mr. Toomey will demonstrate his ability as a mirth maker in a brand new line of jokes.
